Description

A fine pair on Lustre glaze Vases made by Newhall which are beautifully decorated with birds and flowers against the rich orange back ground. New Hall Hanley England Boumier Ware. Singed by the artist Lucien Boullemier. The son of the French-born ceramic artist Antonin Boullemier, [who had moved to Stoke in 1872 to work as a decorator at Minton's factory, Lucien Boullemier worked as a ceramic artist and painter. In 1933, he was joined at the company by his son, Lucien George. Three years later, he left to work for the New Hall Pottery Company in Staffordshire, where he produced a range called "Boumier Ware", each piece of which carried his facsimile signature.
