Description

A lovely set of mahogany dining chairs. We date these chairs to the early 20th century. The chairs sit on carved legs at the front and backward curved square section legs at the rear. The backrests are decoratively carved. The seat pads are upholstered in a floral material with a braided and studded edge. The chairs have an overall height of 88cm, width 47cm and depth 47cm. They have a backrest height of 44cm, a seat height of 43cm, a seat width of 42cm in the middle and a seat depth of 42cm. This lovely set of chairs remain in good solid condition with only very minor surface markings commensurate with age and usage. Two of the chairs have a bit of play to the rear of the frame. This remains a very stylish and elegant set of chairs which will continue to provide sterling service for many years to come.
