Description

A lovely pair of a Walnut framed salon chairs in the French style, dating from the early 20th Century. They have nicely carved frames with shell motif detail and they stand on elegant cabriole legs. Both chairs have upholstered seats and backs and have been covered in a pretty floral fabric which compliments the chairs. They are in good condition and are strong and sturdy. There are a few very minor marks on the upholstery but nothing detrimental. There are some signs of age and use and some small marks and knocks around the frames but no major damages and the display beautifully. They have been cleaned and lightly polished and are ready for use. The chairs stand approximately 39" (99cm) high, 20" (51cm) wide and 18" (46cm) deep. The seats are approximately 17" (43cm) high. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
