Description

Pair of early C20th brass-framed hexagonal hall lanterns of late C18th George III period design. Large pair of brass-framed hexagonal lanterns with decorative cast leaf and flower-head detail to each corner of the frame, and having cast berry drop-finials below. The shaped open 'cage' tops with scroll detail and having an integrally-cast hanging hook. The bases fitted with an inset circular glass panel in a brass frame. Each lantern with a patinated brass 3-light hanging spindle with cast beaded detail 'sconces', fitted with 'candle-tubes' to the bulb-holders. In excellent condition, having been sympathetically re-glazed, re-wired and tested. Fitted with unobtrusive dark-coloured cotton-covered three-core flex. Ready to fit and hang. The brass has been sympathetically cleaned and waxed, having achieved a period-style aged colour and patination. A highly decorative and well-proportioned pair of elegant Georgian-design brass-framed hall lanterns to provide symmetry and period style to an interior scheme. H 33" W 16" D 16" England c.1920
