Description

A very stylish mid-century skeleton timepiece with a gilded jeweled inline or 'baguette' movement suspended behind thick bevelled glass. The case is of gilded brass with a brushed and burnished finish the top and base in a contemporary faceted design all in excellent original condition. The eight day movement with a vertically mounted balance wheel escapement is in excellent condition, finished to the highest standard with minute engine turning. This clock has been overhauled and is working with brilliant accuracy.
