Description

Presenting an exquisite antique 18th-century Georgian bow-front chest of drawers, a rare and highly desirable piece of exceptional quality. Crafted from fine mahogany, it boasts a magnificent grain and a deep, rich colour that reflects its historic elegance. This chest is notable for its compact, unusual size, making it a rare and sought-after item for collectors and antique enthusiasts. It is supported by graceful splay feet, enhanced with a delicate reeded detail above, adding a subtle decorative element to its classic Georgian form. The design includes four drawers, thoughtfully arranged as two smaller ones over two larger ones, providing functional storage while maintaining its refined silhouette. Each drawer is adorned with its original brass handles, showcasing intricate craftsmanship and adding to the piece's authenticity and charm. The bow-front profile lends a timeless elegance to this chest, while its practical proportions make it suitable for a variety of spaces. In excellent condition for its age, this remarkable chest is a true testament to Georgian design and an exceptional addition to any antique collection or interior setting. Product Reference : A...
