Description

This is a totally original 18th century elm dining table made from two very thick planks. This piece has not been touched or changed in its entire life which is a rare thing to find. I absolutely love the originality and characterful nature of the piece. The top also has the most amazing colour and patina with a tactile feel as well. Good size and ideal to seat 6-8 people comfortably. The legs can come off as well for access. Height 74cm Depth 77cm Width 214cm
