Description

This elegant 20th-century bureau bookcase, crafted in rich mahogany, is a timeless piece combining functionality with classic design. Designed for convenience, it separates into two sections for ease of transport. The lower section features a well-fitted desk interior, ideal for organising papers and writing essentials, concealed by a drop-front bureau. Below, three spacious drawers with original brass handles provide ample storage. The upper bookcase is fitted with a glazed front and three adjustable shelves, perfect for displaying books or cherished items. Complete with a key, this piece is in great condition and showcases excellent craftsmanship. Its stunning colour and beautiful grain make it a striking addition to any study, living room, or office.
