Description

An outstanding Art Deco burl walnut leather top desk. This was made in England, it dates from the 1930's. It is of amazing quality, with stunning burl walnut grain patterns throughout. The drawers run smoothly, they have fine hand cut dovetailed joints and lovely original handles. This has a wonderful concave shape, there is a high quality black leather writing surface with Greek key tooling around the edges. The back is beautifully finished, so this can be used as a free standing item. We have had this stripped and re-polished to a very high standard, the condition is superb throughout.
