Description

Victorian leather club chair This Victorian leather club chair was made circa 1880. It has been reupholstered in fine English leather before being hand dyed, and then antiqued. The seat is sprung, and you can sit back and relax on this most comfortable easy chair. It stands on its well-turned original walnut legs with brass rolling castors under. This tan leather chair will fit into any colour scheme. Imagine relaxing back into this fabulous comfortable chair and the pride of ownership it will give you.
