Description

Set 3 Antique Historic English Hunting Sequence Paintings Red Coat Huntsman On Grey By Charles Johnson Payne Snaffles. Impress your guests & clients in your home or office with this humorous hunting set masterpiece. Subject hunting sequences depicting the same red coat rider with grey horse, a humorous scene first as he is about to jump the fence then in the second the rider has fallen off onto the floor with the horse also on its backside on the floor and showing the fence has been broken by them. With the third scene showing the gentleman rider has got back onto his horse and is riding away happy as he won his bet. Title Set 3 Historic Hunting Sequences Jumping Over A Fence by Charles Johnson Payne Snaffles each painting has its own title inscribed "A undered to one ar cooms down, Ar am down, But damme ar won me bet". Circa 1920 early 20th century. 1 of the paintings is signed Snaffles by the artist Charles Johnson Payne Snaffles the other 2 are not signed but they are all by the same artist as he did not sign all of his sequence works. In our opinion these are a fine very rare available example of his works. Presented in the original traditional tiger oak masculine f...
