Description

An incredible Victorian pendant / brooch set with seven natural and unheated round cabochon rubies from Burma. The six vibrant, deep red rubies on the outside are inter-spaced by pairs of white and bright eight cut diamonds. The larger ruby in the centre is set with a further eight diamonds around it. A diamond set bale on the top, as well as a yellow gold pin to the reverse means this versatile piece can either be worn as a pendant or a brooch. The chain pictured is not original. Please note in the checkout whether you would prefer a 16" or 18" 18k yellow or white gold chain. This is included in the price. Accompanied by a ruby report from The Gem & Pearl Laboratory stating the rubies show no evidence of heating, and are Burmese (Myanmar) in origin. Cut: Round cabochon rubies are eight-cut diamonds. Colour: The diamonds are G to H. Clarity: The rubies have some visible inclusions; this is common and expected in rubies. The diamonds are VS1 to VS2. Carat: The centre ruby is approximately 0.70 carat, with a total approximate ruby weight of 1.90 carat. The total approximate diamond weight is 0.32 carat. Circa: 1890. Measurements: Not including the bale, pi...
