Description

A beautiful Victorian silver and agate brooch. Made in Scotland around 1880. It has eight teardrop shaped grey agates which were mined on the east coast of Scotland and set into beautifully engraved silver. It has a standard Victorian "C" style clasp and the usual elongated steel pin. Although unhallmarked it has tested as silver and is in excellent condition with no damage or repairs. WEIGHT; 20 grams approx. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months
