Description

A charming small antique Edwardian mahogany corner cupboard with painted front and dating from circa 1910. It boasts a dentil cornice above a flame figured pediment above a single panelled door, painted with a decorative design of an urn surrounded by swags and bows. With an attractive brass pear drop escutcheon, the door opens to reveal two shaped shelves to the painted interior, it locks and comes with a key. With good patina to the mahogany, it is a nice small size. Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Good condition. Wear and marks commensurate with age. Dimensions: Width Across Front: 49cm Depth at Sides: 35cm Height: 72cm
