Description

An unusual oak and cross banded 18th century chest of drawers with 3 small over 3 full width drawers. Circa 1760. Useful narrow size and very decorative with the cross banding, but offers good storage too! As with all pieces of furniture of this age, there are some previous restorations and some lovely old signs of use and age over its 250 ish years. Probably originally a press. Great piece of early English furniture and in good solid condition. Measuring: 38 inches or 96 cm high 32 inches or 81 cm wide 20 inches or 51 cm deep
