Description

A magnificent small antique Edwardian Jacobean Revival bedside cabinet in oak dating from circa 1910. In beautifully figured oak with a really good colour and patina, it boasts a single panelled door with geometric patterns along with a fancy brass pear drop escutcheon. It has an over-sailing top and stands turned feet united by an under-shelf. The door opens to reveal a shelf and single drawer. A really excellent example.

Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Good condition. Good colour and patina. Wear and marks commensurate with age. Dimensions: Height: 72cm Max Width: 49cm Max Depth: 35cm
