Description

An elegant antique Edwardian diamond crossover ring from the early 1900s, adorned with a trilogy of sparkling transitional cut diamonds across the centre, with SI1 clarity – H colour (approx. 0.52ct total). It's fashioned in platinum and the shoulders twist gracefully around the centre stones. Diamonds are truly a stone of perfection, desired for their rarity, durability and exceptional sparkle that is second to none. Their superior qualities have made them the ultimate symbol of love across the ages with their strength and ceaseless fire representing eternal love and devotion. This would make a stunning antique engagement ring, with a trilogy of stones representing past, present and future or those three little words – "I love you".
