Date of manufacture: 1940

A smart pair of silver ashtrays dating from 1939. The square design has a circular central bowl, smooth curves at each corner and a combination of smooth polished silver with panels of crisp engine turned engraving. Very typically Art Deco in style, with their clean lines these smart ashtrays would look very smart in a period or modern home. Hallmarked as sterling silver, Birmingham 1939 by D. Bros. Condition: In good vintage condition. There is some fine surface wear to the smooth trays commensurate with age and usage. Measurements: Width across 9cm Diagonal length: 11cm Height 1.2 cm Weight for the pair: 90 grams All measurements are approximate.
