Description

A late c.18th chair, of Chippendale country design. Constructed in beautifully figured solid elm feature a pierced splat back, yoke top rail with flared ears. Upholstered seat covered in tapestry fabric. Raised on square legs with grooved outer corners, supported by H-stretchers. An attractive, high quality and well presented country chair. In good condition and ready for use. Dimensions: This chair measures approximately 99 cm (39") tall, 54 cm (21.25") wide, and 53 cm (20.875") deep. The seat height is approximately 46 cm (18"). Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This chair is in a good condition commensurate with its age. Some odd minor marks and blemishes. A few minor old and extinct worm holes, typical of elm antique furniture, that does not affect the sturdiness of the chair in any way, and now treated as way of precaution. Oak splat saddle which could be a replacement, though is unquestionably old, as it has plenty of age to it. No loose joints. Upholstery and cover are both in reasonably good condition. Good colour throughout. Good polish and aged patina. Very serviceable and ready for use. - As with all vintage & antiqu...
