Description

A superb example of an oak dresser and rack having the most stunning colour and patina. The rack has a moulded cornice, shaped sides with three moulded front shelves and the original wide pine backboards. The four drawer base retaining original brass swan neck handles above an arcaded apron having an applied cockbeaded edge; five baluster turned legs lead to the original two piece potboard, shallow bracket feet to the outside and a turned foot to the middle. In wonderful original condition, a fantastic example of Welsh furniture probably from the Montgomeryshire area.
