Description

An Antique Victorian Copper Samovar By W.S. Adams & Son Ironmongers To the Queen. Stamped to the underside of the lid 'Adam's & Sons 57 Haymarket London'. Believed to be an earlier piece before they got the royal mark. Adam's & Sons: W. S. Adams & Son, of 57 Haymarket, London, were ironmongers to Queen Victoria in the 19th century. William Salkeld Adams (1808-1898) is listed in London trade directories, electoral registers, and rate books as an ironmonger located at 57 Haymarket from 1839-80. Free UK delivery!
