Description

Henry Spernon Tozer 1865-1955. Born in Sheerness, Kent, Tozer spent much of his life living and painting in Cornwall. Tozer is highly regarded as a painter of country life, with a bias towards cottage interiors. Many of Henry's paintings are of older people in domestic situations. He would often include an elderly person in his watercolours. He was known to have exhibited at Birmingham as well as exhibiting and selling a painting at the opening of Newlyn Art Gallery.

Tozer was an artist of great skill and his paintings have a strong following. His works can be found in collections around the world.

'An Afternoon Snooze by the Fireside' signed watercolour dated 1929, image size 22x31.5 cms, framed size 41x49.5 cms
