Description

A Pair of 19th Century Matching Howard Style Chairs, Original Castors. A handsome pair of fine quality, well constructed 19th century chairs in the style of Howard and Sons with original mahogany legs and working brass castors. An elegant pair of bedroom chairs which are equally versatile in dressing rooms, bedrooms, nursery or day rooms, fireside chairs etc., a superb design of good proportion and well sprung. A workshop constructed pair in structurally excellent condition. Each chair is upholstered and the depth of seat and back rests appear of differing shape due to the stuffing beneath., we are still considering removing some layers as we believe at least 1 fabric layer is directly over another., which may also reveal the workshop makers stamp, until then they are available as they are. We have now removed the green upholstery to 1 chair and added 2 more photos, each chair is matching and structurally excellent, immediately ready to upholster.
