Description

For your consideration is this high style original 1930's Walnut table of good proportions. This table is very heavy and oozes quality. The veneers are book paged and have the most glorious and appealing pattern . It comes complete with a protective cut-to-size additional glass top. The finish is a satin adding to that extra opulent feel. These tables don't come onto the market often. See dimensions for full impact of this table, perfect piece to stand centre stage in your chosen room. Condition is great, newly restored to showroom condition by our professional restoration team.
