Description

Richly coloured Victorian earrings, each formed of three gleaming parts, the bottom ornately embellished and set with old-cut garnet pastes. The wires are solid nine-carat gold, the pendant sections are gilded metal. • Condition: Very good antique condition. There are some tiny dabs of solder at the back of the wires which are likely a replacement for original hooks or screw backs. • Fixing: Front-fastening ear wires. • Stamps/hallmarks: There is an unidentifiable hallmark/stamp on one of the wires. • Era: Victorian. • Size: 3.5 x 1.5cm. • Weight: 5.2g.
