Description

A 19th century miniature Beard Patent frame. This is wonderful with dolphins at the bottom and birds at the top corners, super detail and in lovely used condition commensurate with age. The frame has an earlier silhouette of Johannes Lang. The frame still has all the original fixing clips within the frame and what appears to be the original glass. I have left the Silhouette out of the frame to preserve it. Richard Beard was a coal merchant. 14 x 14.5 cm Aperture 5 x 6 cm
