Description

Circa 1910, a Victorian Rococo hand-carved giltwood console table with mirror. The finely carved mirror with rococo scrolls, acanthus leaves, and foliage with open carvings to the top. The shaped and fluted sides with further foliate and Rococo scroll decoration above a moulded base. The mirror plate with some old foxing, but overall in good condition. The serpentine front console base with unusual variegated pink marble over an open carved giltwood Rococo frieze. All on four fluted cabriole legs with intricate foliate-carved cross stretchers. 59cm high x 115cm wide (mirror), 89cm high x 128cm wide x 53cm deep (base)
