Description

A Fine Charles II Carved Oak Yorkshire Settle attributed to the Halifax area, Circa 1670. The back having a lunette carved top rail enriched with punchwork and surmounted by four turned finials, above three horizontal panels of flowing S-scroll motifs issuing stylised pods of crosshatching, and four vertical lozenge carved panels below divided by a cross-hatched rail featuring a long undulating band to the centre. The uprights adorned with split spindle appliqués and flanked by spandrels. The down-swept arms on baluster knopped posts leading to a long planked seat with three baluster turned front legs connected to the rear stiles with peripheral stretchers and having two additional baluster uprights to the front. Free UK mainland delivery is included in the price of this item.
