Description

This exquisite Victorian mahogany writing table, once the cherished property of a lady, embodies the elegance and craftsmanship of its era. The rich, dark wood showcases a lustrous finish, highlighting the intricate details and style characteristic of Victorian design. The table features five spacious drawers, providing ample storage for stationery and writing essentials, while the central drawer proudly bears the stamp of 'Holland & Sons,' a mark of quality and prestige. This writing table is not just a functional piece of furniture but a timeless artifact, inviting one to imagine the correspondence and creativity it once facilitated. It stands as a beautiful testament to the artistry of its time, enriching any room with its presence and history. Holland and Sons Antique Furniture (1803 – 1942) were extremely good cabinet makers and they specialised in fine quality furniture. Holland and Sons were founded in 1803 by William Holland and by the middle of 19th century, they were one of the main competitors to the furniture makers Gillow.
