Description

An absolutely charming and highly unusual art deco period silver plated toast rack in the form of an owl and moons. The owl finial functions as a handle and is perched upon the central crescent moon. Six crescent moons divide the rack and sit upon a large crescent moon with engraved facial details. The whole is raised upon three bun feet. Stamped 'Pridham & Sons, Torquay' with associated serial and registration numbers to the base. There is a small amount of wear commensurate with age but generally the piece remains in a very good condition throughout. A really lovely thing.
