Description

A stunning, fine and impressive 2.92 carat diamond and 18 carat yellow gold, 18 carat white gold set five stone dress ring; part of our diverse antique diamond jewellery and estate jewelry collections. This stunning, fine and impressive antique diamond ring has been crafted in 18ct yellow gold with an 18ct white gold setting. The pierced decorated setting displays five graduated claw set Old European round cut diamonds, totalling 2.92cts; this broad linear formation of diamonds creates a stunning display across the bridge of the finger. The elevated yellow gold ring shoulders integrate with the main setting and blend seamlessly with the plain ring shank. This five stone ring has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as 18 carat gold. This antique ring is supplied with three IDGL diamond grading report certificates for the feature stones, in addition to an IDGL diamond grading report card for the supporting stones. Such original examples with a large diamond content are becoming increasingly difficult to locate. Images do not always reflect the true colour and brilliance of gemstones and diamonds.
