Description

A super vintage David Anderson brooch is the most stunning vivid yellow enamel in the form of fanned leaves. Fashioned from silver, the inlaid enamel has an almost metallic sheen and the veins of the leaves are neatly moulded in relief. One of the most revered of Scandinavian jewellery designers, Norwegian David Anderson was renowned for his beautiful enamelled jewellery. The back of the brooch bears the marks for David Anderson, Norway, 925 sterling silver and there is a good fastening pin that secures well. Great gift for a collector or for a lover of vintage jewellery! Period; Mid-century. Condition: In super pre-owned condition. Measurements: Height: 2.9 cm Width: 6.3 cm Weight: 8.4 grams Weights and measurements are approximate.
