Description

A charming antique Victorian oak and mahogany Pembroke table, combining practicality with elegant design. The table features two drop leaves on either side, which are supported by pull-out arms from underneath, making it versatile for various settings. It is raised on four beautifully turned and fluted legs, showcasing the craftsmanship of the period. The table has a lovely colour and patina throughout, adding warmth and character to its appearance. A delightful example of Victorian furniture, perfect for both functional and decorative use.
