Description

Exceptionally fine quality pair of late C19th / early C20th Edwardian period etched and engraved rectangular glass mirrors. Highly decorative pair of mirrors with deeply etched and engraved glass plates, in later moulded and ebonised wooden frames. The centres having neoclassical-style oval sun-flower paterae with floral surrounds, with a vase of flowers to each end, and the borders with a running scrolling design. The thick and heavy glass mirror plates in excellent clear condition with no damage or degradation. Having boarded backs. By repute the mirrors were conceived as fittings for a cruise-liner but not used in the final scheme and subsequently have been employed in a domestic setting. H 72" W 28" D 4" England c.1900
