Description

A beautiful George III antique silver "Port" wine label. Made in London around 1780 probably by William Lestourgeon. He worked in the city of Westminster at Covent Garden. The label has The Prince of Wales feathers on the top and Port engraved in a cartouch. There is a suspension chain and the makers mark "WL" only struck twice. This label is in excellent condition with no damage or repairs. A very rare and collectable item. WEIGHT; 8 grams approx. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months
