Description

A fantastic original antique Regency mahogany drop leaf table. This was made in England, we would date it from around the 1820-1830 period. It is of superb quality and is a great size. The drop down ends lift up and each is supported by two hinged pull out supports, this extends the surface area to the size of a small dining table. There is a single drawer on one side and a dummy drawer on the opposite side. This stands on a beautifully carved central column and four sabre shaped legs, with brass hairy paw feet and casters. We have had this recently re-polished, the condition is excellent for its age. There is just some normal wear and age related patina seen beneath the polish here and there. Width – 37 inches , 94 cm Depth – 21 inches , 53 cm Depth open – 40 inches , 102 cm Height – 29 inches , 74 cm
