Description

A huge table from the 1920s, crafted from solid walnut with a burr walnut top and sides. This table is not only fabulously designed but also offers ample surface area. The top features an inlaid green leather surface with gold framing on the sides, adding to its decorative appeal. It also includes classic cabriole legs, showcasing a Queen Anne style. A table like this is truly in a league of its own, perfect for a meeting room or displaying clothes and other items in a retail setting.
