Description

Mid C19th Victorian period inlaid and ormolu-mounted burr and figured walnut credenza with rare fitted secretaire writing drawer . Serpentine shaped glass ends and inlaid panel centre door fitted with ormolu mounts, ormolu beading and ormolu rococo design escutcheons. The burr walnut centre panelled door with box-wood inlay , further ormolu beading to the frame and having a working lock and elaborate gilded key escutcheon , opening to reveal a velvet-lined interior fitted with a walnut edged shelf . The box-wood inlaid frieze above the door having a rare concealed secretaire writing drawer below . The mahogany-framed sliding drawer fitted with its original tooled Moroccan leather writing surface, lifting to reveal a well for stationary. The right-hand side having divisions and a shaped pen-tray . Fitted with the original working lock and key . The serpentine glass end 'doors' being fixed panels, though fitted with rococo ormolu 'escutcheon' plates . The shaped top with a 'cross-grain' walnut moulded edge and with beautifully figured 'book-matched' veneers . The whole raised on a shaped plinth base . In excellent original condition with a superb rich colour and pati...
