Description

Wonderful, soft, unfaded dyes, chosen by the clever people at Ziegler's workshops to appeal to decorative tastes in Europe and America around 1900. Often retailed through well known departments stores such as Libertys or Harvey Nichols, these beautiful carpets are still so relevant over 100 years later, a real testament to their vision. The allover design, flows comfortably through the field and the soft, milky white ground with accents of pale blue, sun bleached terracotta and pale gold are a decorators dream. Showing light wear and some professional restoration, it is clean and ready for your floor. 10'1" x 13'7"
