Description

Four attractive antique George III Welsh oak dining chairs, including one armchair, showcasing elegant traditional craftsmanship. Each chair features a camelback-shaped backrest with decorative fret-cut central splats, adding a refined touch to the design. The chairs have solid rectangular seats, raised on square-cut legs, connected by straight stretcher supports for stability. These well-crafted chairs bring character and timeless style to any dining room or period interior. Item Ref; M-5264 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 97cm / Width - 66cm / Depth - 41cm / Seat Height - 44cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout, with some signs of age. Surface wear is present, including age-related marks and scratches across the pieces. There is splitting to the seats, but they remain solid and sound. The seats show fading and some staining, and the armchair arms also exhibit fading. Additionally, there is some loss to the backs of a few chairs. All imperfections are clearly shown in the pictures, highlighting the authentic character of the chairs while maintaining their functionality. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our ...
