Description

Original 1930s Art Deco gilded spelter lady lamp fully working and standing 14.5 inches high including its glass globe shade. Modelled as a kneeling lady in a scantily clad dress holding aloft the bulb socket. She is secured to an original diamond shaped 2 tier stepped alabaster base. The ribbed glass globe has a blue tinge and slight iridescence and suits the piece. The lamp is wired and working and Pat tested. There is a on line bakelite switch from the lamp and a cable from the switch to a 3 pin plug. . Looks fantastic when lit and this piece typifies the 1930s and would sit well in any interior and create a good focal point. Please study the images as hopefully these will help form part of the description. Shipping and insuranceto UK and Ireland included in asking price
