Description

Pair Of Early Georgian Chinoiserie Corner Cabinets • Early 18th Century circa 1700-20 • Matched pair with minor differences • Both of the same period and housed together for much of their existence • Original Decoration with No Restoration • Original Brass Butterfly Hinges and Escutcheons • Original Locks and Keys • Profusely decorated in raised gilt gesso and gilt pen work • Black Japanned Lacquer background • Typical Chinese life scenes of the period • 2 Opening Doors • One has a aged parchment colour interior • One has an aged Adam Green colour interior • Good Country House Condition • Usual signs of wear commensurate with their great age • H: 91.5cm (36") W: 59cm (23.2") D: 40cm (15.7") These exquisite and historic cabinets offer both ornamental appeal and practical storage. Finding a matched pair of Early 18th Century Oak Japanned Lacquer and Gilt Chinoiserie Corner Cabinets is quite rare. Despite minor differences, they are from the same era and have been together for a significant portion of their history. Each cabinet preserves its original decoration without any restoration, lavishly adorned with raised gilt gesso and gilt pen work on a Black Japanned Lacquer...
