Description

A good example of a pair of cut glass trumpet vases set into sterling silver bases. The glass is beautifully cut with a tapering design and flared rim and the silver bases are weighted. They are hallmarked for Birmingham, 1901 and the maker Thomas Latham & Ernest Morton. They are in good condition for their age. There are some minor surface nibbles around the glass but no major damages and they display beautifully. There are some small dinks and surface marks on the silver and signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. They have been lightly cleaned and polished and are ready for use. Approximate Measurements : Height : 7" / 18cm Diameter : 2 1/4" / 6cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
