Description

A smart Edwardian inlaid mahogany extending writing table, the well-figured rectangular top with drop leaves to either side, above a single long frieze drawer and raised on elegant turned and reeded legs terminating in original castors. Slender proportions and simple lines provide an attractive aesthetic— ideal for use as a writing table, side table or compact desk. Presented in very good antique condition with a deep, rich finish and some light surface wear consistent with age. The castors are a little stiff, but the piece is all structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1905. H: 72.5 W: 70.5 / 105.5 D: 54.5 cm
