Description

1 Victorian Oil Painting Animal Portrait Sad Extinct White English Terrier Dog Follower Of John Emms. Impress your clients & guests with this animal statement masterpiece in your office or home wall space. Title "Extinct English White Terrier Dog" Follower John Emms. Subject portrait in front profile of an historical extinct breed white English terrier dog in three quarter length view, a feature that particular stands out is the dogs sad expression, he is looking tiards the right and is wearing his collar. A nice small size with the frame being 34 cm high and 30 cm wide. Oil on board. In the style follower of John Emms. Initial signed by the British Victorian artist R.E.G. Circa late 19th century Victorian era. Set in the original decorative moulded frame. In our opinion this is very fine example of the extinct animal breed. The English White Terrier (also known as the White English Terrier) is an extinct breed of dog. "English White Terrier" is the failed show ring name of a pricked-ear form of the white fox-working terriers that have existed in Great Britain since the late 18th century. The name was invented and embraced in the early 1860s by a handful of breeders anxio...
