Description

A fine late 19th century mahogany cabinet with the beautifully carved locking door opening to four shallow shelves. Possibly a music cabinet but suitable for a host of uses in the home. Very good condition, structurally all in good order with just some light age related surface wear. There appears to have once been a gallery to the top but this is no longer present and the top has been refinished. English, circa 1890. H: 104 W: 55 D: 40 cm

Internal Ref: 3348
