Description

An elegant 19th-century Ceylonese coffer expertly crafted from premium satinwood and striking ebony. Its sophisticated form, rich contrast, and generous proportions make it a beautiful statement piece for the foot of a bed, a spacious hallway, or a principal living room corner. The chest is defined by its fine period joinery that seamlessly marries the pale, vibrant satinwood with deep, solid ebony borders. The heavy hinged lid opens smoothly to reveal a spacious interior, offering highly versatile storage while highlighting the luxury materials characteristic of colonial Sri Lankan cabinetry. The piece is in showroom condition. It is ready for immediate use in the home. Dimensions: * Height: 70.5cm  Foot Height: 30cm * Width: 127.5cm * Depth: 48.5cm
