

Sold

Date of manufacture: Victorian

Depth = 10 cm (3.9")

A top quality Victorian brass cased bulkhead ships barometer on the original oak plinth by Cooke of Hull, fully serviced and working c.1900. The polished brass case with mounting flange to the rear and cast bezel to the front. The glazed view window with central reading marker, porcelain dial with weather predictions sat over the aneroid movement. Sat on the original turned polished oak plinth with hanging mount to the top and bottom. Bears the makers name Cooke, Hull, noted clock, barometer and chronometer makers. Presented in excellent condition, fully serviced and working. Keep up to date via Instagram - sturmansantiques. Measures 8.75" wide x 4" deep x 10" high with hanging loops. Please contact us with your postcode to obtain a quote for delivery of this item.

Seller Details

International Tel: +44 1969 667742 or +44 7572 889651