Description

The practitioners of the Arts & Crafts movement strongly believed that the connection forged between the artist and his work through handcraft was the key to producing both human fulfillment and beautiful items that would be useful on an everyday basis; as a result, Arts & Crafts artists are largely associated with the vast range of the decorative arts. The Arts & Crafts aesthetic varied greatly depending on the media and location involved, but it was influenced most prominently by both the imagery of nature and the forms of medieval art, particularly the Gothic style, which enjoyed a revival in Europe and North America during the mid-19th century. Arts & Crafts, Stained glass Hanging Lantern. Hand crafted in Bronze. English circa 1900; electrified. The original stained leaded glass with original finish, and with small crack to one pane of glass, see photo. Measurements Height 60cm Width/depth middle 36cm max Width/depth bottom 15cm
