Description

A rare English William IV antique solid sterling silver snuff box. It is hallmarked for Birmingham 1838 with the maker being Nathaniel Mills. It has been superbly designed and the cartouche has been engraved with the single initial S. It is in super condition being free from dings splits distortions and repairs, just a faint push mark to the base and a minute split to the top corner edge - see final photos. The hinge is smooth and tight, the inside gilded. It measures approx. 2.5 inches (6.2cm) across by 1.25 inches (3.6cm) wide by 0.5 inch (1.2cm) tall and weighs 38 grams. A very high quality example.
